

Activity – Android Studio using Java

- 1- Design and implement a mobile application for students' registration, which enable students create an account to register their information: name, address, phone number, date of birth – use ArrayList of Students.
- 2- Enable users to input students' information in order to store them in the array.
- 3- Add the following functionalities to enable students manage their account: View and edit their details, and upload their photos.
- 4- Use View List to display students' details on the screen.
- 5- Implement one of the functionalities in a separate thread.